The Hastings Women's Law Journal was created to serve the student and professional legal community. We are committed to promoting scholarship in issues of concern common to all women, recognizing the unique concerns of communities that traditionally have been denied a voice, such as women of color, poor women, and lesbians.

We invite you to collaborate with the Hastings Women's Law Journal. We welcome a broad spectrum of contributions such as:

- Articles
- Book Reviews
- Commentaries
- Personal Narratives
- Poems
- Responses to material published in the Journal

Please submit two typed triple-spaced copies with wide margins. Footnotes should appear on separate pages, triple-spaced, and should conform to A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATIONS (14th ed. 1986). Additionally, please provide us with a floppy disk of your article, if possible. Your unpublished manuscript should be submitted to:

Hastings Women's Law Journal
200 McAllister Street
San Francisco, California 94102

Citations conform generally to A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATIONS (14th ed. 1986).
