Dear Roger:

I have finally read, much too belatedly, your address before the New England Society of Newspaper Editors. I found it first rate, both in substance and in style. I trust that it will be available in printed form.

It was good to see Madeleine and you at the reception for the Council. I hope to be able to spend a little more time with you both on your next visit. Meanwhile, my best.

As ever,

M. J. Rossant
