Dear Edith:

Enclosed is that extraordinarily interesting IPI Report on Press Councils and Press Codes (1962) from the Asia Foundation Library. You were dear to send it along and I hope it comes back to the Library in good time.

This weekend and next weekend we are off again to the other coast. (In spare moments one can muse about that heavy concentration of main media in NYC, reminiscent of olden days when Boston was the hub of the universe.)

At least we stay in communication with good friends via the typewriter, still wishing we could see more of Bay Area friends. (Let's decentralize NY!)

Enclosed is a small bulletin (B and B) springing out of the Berkeley experience, and still of some currency. (I walk with heavy heart through our little Berlin to visit such old friends as Barbara Armstrong, permanently crippled and bedridden from the brutal street attack upon her three years ago. I have lost count of similar incidents among friends and acquaintances.)

All our best to you and Norman.

As always,
