File No.: SA 87 RF 0013

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

STATE INCOME TAX REBATE. INITIATIVE STATUTE. The State Constitution requires tax revenues in excess of the state's appropriations limit be returned. This initiative would implement this requirement by establishing an income tax rebate system. Excess revenues for 1986-87 would be returned by October 15, 1988 through personal income tax rebate of 15 percent of 1986 taxes, but not to exceed $300 for married couples filing joint returns, heads of household, surviving spouses and $150 for all others. Future excess revenues would be returned pursuant to similar formula but rebate limits could fluctuate depending upon amount of excess revenues. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: Approximately $1.2 billion in rebates plus interest would be available for distribution to taxpayers in October 1988 as a result of excess revenues attributable to 1986-87 fiscal year. Annual costs to the State General Fund for administering the rebate program would be approximately $4 million. Interest on the rebated revenues would also be a General Fund charge, estimated to be $110,000 for the rebates to be distributed in October 1988.

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE VOTERS

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

(Here set forth the title and summary prepared by the Attorney General. This title and summary must also be printed across the top of each page of the petition whereon signatures are to appear.)

TO THE HONORABLE SECRETARY OF STATE OF CALIFORNIA

We, the undersigned, registered, qualified voters of California, residents of _____ County (or City and County), hereby propose a statute, relating to income tax rebates, and petition the Secretary of State to submit the same to the voters of California for their adoption or rejection at the next succeeding direct primary election or at any special statewide election prior to that direct primary election or otherwise as provided by law. The proposed statute reads as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the Personal Income Tax Rebate Act. The people find that the revenues received by the state during the 1986-87 fiscal year have exceeded the appropriations limit set forth in Article XIII B of the California Constitution. This act implements the mandatory disposition of those excess revenues, and excess revenues in subsequent years, pursuant to Section 2 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution. The people declare that the tax reduction provided by this act is a functional equivalent of a tax rate revision.

SEC. 2. Chapter 2.8 (commencing with Section 17070) is added Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.8. TAX REBATES

17070. (a) For purposes of Section 2 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, a tax reduction (hereafter referred to as "rebate") of 15 percent against "tax imposed by this part" (as defined in subdivision (b)) shall be allowed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1986, and ending on or before November 30, 1987 (hereafter referred to in this chapter as the 1986 taxable year), for excess revenues in the 1986-87 fiscal year. If a taxpayer begins more than one taxable year during the period, the rebate shall be allowed only with respect to the taxable year which covers the most number of months. The rebate provided by this section shall not exceed the amounts specified in subdivision (e).

(b) For the purpose of this section, the term "tax imposed by this part" means the sum of paragraphs (1) and (2) as follows:

(1) The tax under either Section 17041 or 17048, minus all credits allowed by this part other than the renter credit (Section 17053.5), the credit for excess unemployment insurance (Section 17061), the credit for withholding (Section 18551.1), and any other refundable credits provided by this part.

(2) The tax on preference income imposed by Section 17062, the tax on business income of certain exempt organizations imposed by Section 17651, the tax on the early withdrawal from an individual retirement account imposed by Section 17082, and the tax on the early withdrawal from a Keogh or annuity contract imposed by Section 17507.

(c) The rebate provided by this section shall be allowed only to a taxpayer who has timely filed the required returns with full payment, unless the taxpayer's failure to pay or file a timely return was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(d) If, after the rebate provided by this section is allowed, the Franchise Tax Board determines that the taxpayer's "tax imposed by this part" exceeds, or is less than, the amount shown on the return, a corresponding adjustment shall be made by the Franchise Tax Board with respect to that tax rebate.

(e) The rebate provided by this section shall not exceed the following:

(1) Three hundred dollars ($300) for married couples filing joint returns, heads of household, and surviving spouses (as defined in Section 17046).

(2) One hundred fifty dollars ($150) for all other individuals and estates and trusts.

(f) For excess revenues, if any, in fiscal years subsequent to the 1986-87 fiscal year, the rebate provided by this section shall apply to the 1986 taxable year or subsequent taxable years to the extent provided for, and as modified by, Section 17070.3.

17070.1. There is hereby created the State Tax Rebate Account in the General Fund. This account is available without regard to fiscal years for the purpose of returning state revenues pursuant to Section 2 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and this chapter. A separate account shall be established for each fiscal year in which an estimate of excess revenue is made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17070.3. The State Tax Rebate Account is not, and shall not be deemed to be, any of the funds specified in Section 5 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

17070.2. (a) On the effective date of this section, there is hereby transferred one billion one hundred million dollars ($1,100,000,000) from the General Fund to the State Tax Rebate Account for the 1986-87 fiscal year. This amount represents the estimated revenue in excess of the appropriations limit pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution for the 1986-87 fiscal year.

(b) On or before June 9, 1988, the Director of Finance shall certify the actual amount of state revenues in excess of the appropriations limit for the 1986-87 fiscal year pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution and shall direct the Controller to adjust the one billion one hundred million dollars ($1,100,000,000) transfer pursuant to subdivision (a) between the General Fund and the State Tax Rebate Account, accordingly.

(c) Notwithstanding the actual amount certified pursuant to subdivision (b), the tax rebate provided by Section 17070 for excess revenues in the 1986-87 fiscal year shall be allowed to the full extent provided for in that section. The Controller shall transfer from the General Fund to the State Tax Rebate Account for the 1986-87 fiscal year any additional amount needed to make those rebates.

(d) On or before June 15, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall determine the amount of the tax rebate for each eligible taxpayer, pursuant to Section 17070.

(e) On or before July 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall certify to the Controller the names and addresses of all eligible taxpayers who are to receive a rebate payment. On or before October 15, 1988, the Controller shall issue the rebates, plus interest, in the manner, and pursuant to the appropriation, set forth in Section 17070.4.

17070.3. For purposes of Section 2 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, revenues in excess of the appropriations limit of the state for any fiscal year subsequent to the 1986-87 fiscal year shall be returned to taxpayers under the method of computation prescribed by Section 17070 and pursuant to the other provision of this chapter with the following modifications:

(a) (1) The reduction pursuant to this chapter shall be allowed with respect to the taxable year for which tax returns were filed pursuant to Section 18432 in the calendar year preceding the last day of the applicable fiscal year for which the excess revenues are being returned.

(2) Rebates for excess revenues, if any, for the 1987-88 fiscal year shall be issued concurrently with rebates for the excess revenues in the 1986-87 fiscal year, as prescribed by subdivision (e) of Section 17070.2. Those rebates shall be combined into one single check.

(b) For purposes of Section 2 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, excess revenues, if any, for the 1987-88 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter shall be based on estimates of the revenues in excess of the appropriations limit of the state pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution for the current fiscal year, as adjusted pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (h). Those estimates shall be annually made and reported by the Department of Finance concurrently with the May revision of the current fiscal year revenue estimates by the Department of Finance. The amount shall be certified to the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller and shall be transferred by the Controller from the General Fund to the State Tax Rebate Account for the applicable fiscal year.

(c) (1) As of January 10, 1989, and each January 10 thereafter, the Director of Finance shall certify the actual amount of state revenues in excess of the appropriations limit of the state for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution. The determination of excess revenues for the current fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to the difference in the estimate made pursuant to subdivision (b) for the preceding fiscal year and the actual amount determined pursuant to this section for that fiscal year.

(2) The determination of excess revenues, if any, for the 1987-88 fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to the amount transferred between the State Tax Rebate Account for the 1986-87 fiscal year and the General Fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17070.2.

(d) Immediately after the certification is made pursuant to subdivision (b), the maximum dollar limits specified in subdivision (e) of Section 17070 shall be adjusted, as directed by the Director of Finance, for each fiscal year in which a return of excess revenues is made pursuant to this chapter by the percentage change in the revenues in excess of the appropriations limit from the most recent fiscal year in which such an excess occurred, rounded off to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(e) On or before June 1 immediately following the certification made pursuant to subdivision (b), the tax rebate percentage set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 17070 shall be recalculated by the Franchise Tax Board for each fiscal year based upon the maximum dollar limits determined pursuant to subdivision (d) and the number of eligible taxpayers and their tax liability for the taxable year in which the reduction is allowed pursuant to subdivision (a), so that a flat percentage will return all of the estimated excess revenues for the current fiscal year certified pursuant to subdivision (b).

(f) On or before July 1 immediately following the date specified in subdivision (e), the Franchise Tax Board shall determine the amount of the tax rebate for each eligible taxpayer pursuant to Section 17070, as modified by this section. By that date, the Franchise Tax Board shall certify to the Controller the names and addresses of all eligible taxpayers who are to receive a rebate payment and the specific amount of the payment.

(g) On or before October 15 immediately following the date specified in subdivision (e), the Controller shall issue the rebates, plus interest, in the manner, and pursuant to the appropriation, set forth in Section 17070.4.

(h) If the determination of excess revenues for the current fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) (as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c) and this subdivision) does not equal or exceed one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), a rebate shall not be made during the current calendar year and subdivisions (d), (e), (f), and (g) shall not be applicable. The amount referred to in the preceding sentence (less the amounts rebated pursuant to this subdivision) shall be carried forward and used to increase the amount of estimated excess revenues for the next succeeding fiscal year if a return is to be made pursuant to this chapter for that fiscal year. In that event, that amount shall be transferred from the State Tax Rebate Account for the next succeeding fiscal year.

However, if a return is not to be made pursuant to this chapter in the next fiscal year because the estimated excess revenues for that fiscal year as determined pursuant to subdivision (b) (as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c) and this subdivision) do not equal or exceed one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), then, notwithstanding any other provision, the amount carried forward shall be rebated in the same calendar year in which that next succeeding fiscal year ended in the manner prescribed by subdivisions (d), (e), (f), and (g).

17070.4. (a) Any rebate amount under this chapter shall include interest, at the rate determined pursuant to Section 19269, from July 1 following the fiscal year for which the return of excess revenues is being made to the date of issuance of the rebate. The amount necessary to pay that interest shall be transferred, as needed, from the General Fund to each fiscal year State Tax Rebate Account.

(b) Amounts sufficient to pay the tax rebates, plus interest, required pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, from each fiscal year State Tax Rebate Account to the Controller for that purpose. For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, the appropriation made by this subdivision shall be deemed to be a refund of taxes.

17070.5. All references in this chapter to sections in this code which are not enacted by this chapter are to sections as amended or to be amended and to successor sections.

SEC. 3. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision of application, and, to this end, the provisions of the act are severable.
