The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

HEALTH CARE. INITIATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Declares access to quality health care a right of all California residents. Requires Legislature to enact health insurance program meeting stated standards, including: availability to all California residents; comprehensive coverage, including health care, preventive care, long-term care, mental health services; individual choice of health care provider; provisions to minimize waste, inefficiency and administrative costs; cost controls with per capita cost not to exceed 1992 cost of covered services, increased by inflation rate. If cost control provision is met, program appropriations in excess of 1992-93 state health care expenditures are exempt from state appropriations limit. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: Fiscal effect unknown because dependent upon specifics of program enacted by Legislature and effect of program on overall spending for health care. Could result in costs of billions of dollars annually.

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE VOTERS

This initiative measure is submitted to the people in accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section 8 of the Constitution. This initiative amends the Constitution by adding a new Article XVII, as follows:

SECTION 1. Access to quality health care is a right of all people residing in the State of California. This right shall be realized by the establishment, implementation, and maintenance of a universal health insurance program.

SECTION 2. By June 1, 1994, the legislature of the State of California shall enact a health insurance program that meets all of the following standards:

1. Universal: Health insurance shall be provided to every resident of the State of California.

2. Comprehensive: The insurance benefits shall cover all necessary health care services, including outpatient and hospital services, preventive care, long term-care, and mental health services. The benefits provided through the program shall also be no less than those provided to members of the State Legislature under then-existing state law.

3. Cost control: The program shall include strong and effective methods to control costs and assure quality while maintaining the goals of universality and comprehensive service. The average per capita cost for the health services covered by the program shall not exceed the average per capita cost of providing those same services in 1992 by more than the rate of general inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States as reported by the United States Department of Labor, or successor agency of the United States Government. The legislature may authorize exceptions to this standard in the event of epidemics or other public health emergencies.

4. Freedom of Choice -- Individuals shall have the freedom to choose from a variety of health care providers, including both individual providers and health maintenance organizations.

5. Administrative Efficiency -- The program shall reduce waste and inefficiency in health care delivery, by eliminating unnecessary administrative costs, and the program shall ensure prompt reimbursement of health care providers. The cost of administering the health program shall not exceed 5 per cent of the total program budget.

SECTION 3. The program enacted by the Legislature shall commence operations no later than January 1, 1995. The legislature shall determine the length of time a person must be a resident of California to qualify for benefits available under the State's health program.

SECTION 4. To the extent appropriations by the State to implement this Article exceed State expenditures for health care in fiscal year 1992-93, those appropriations shall not be considered "appropriations subject to limitation" under Article XIII B, so long as the State's program complies with the cost control provisions set forth in Section 2(3.), above.

SECTION 5. If any part of this Article is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional, the remaining sections shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect. Any resident of the State of California shall have standing to enforce this Article by bringing an action in any Superior Court where there is proper venue in a suit against the State of California.
