in October, as proposed in this measure, we would interrupt and interfere with numerous inter-state business transactions. In effect, California is "out of step" during the month of October with our other major states. By advancing Daylight-Savings Time in California to the last Sunday in October, as proposed in this measure, we would place California Daylight-Savings Time out of step with the Daylight-Savings schedules as stated.

Non-conformity upsets our radio and television programming; non-conformity interferes with all inter-state traveling and travel schedules; non-conformity interrupts and interferes with numerous inter-state business transactions. In effect, California is "out of step" during the month of October with our other major states. By advancing Daylight-Savings Time in California to the last Sunday in October, as proposed in this measure, we would then be in conformity with the schedule adopted in these other states of the Union.

Arguments in Favor of Daylight-Savings Time Conformity

This Daylight-Savings Time Conformity measure would place California Daylight-Savings Time in conformity with the Daylight-Savings schedules adopted by almost all of our major states. These major states now terminate Daylight-Savings Time on the last Sunday in October. California now terminates its Daylight-Savings schedule on the last Sunday in September. Thus during the month of October we are not in conformity with the other major states of our Nation. The consequences of this non-conformity are obvious but a few should be related.

is made for the making of payments in lieu of taxes to the counties in which the lands are acquired. This is a fair and equitable solution to the problem caused in these counties due to public acquisition of lands and is supported by the California Farm Bureau. Amongst others, the California Farm Bureau is opposed to this bond act. No such provision would be made in the proposed bond act.

In the interest of fairness and equity to the taxpayers in the counties which will be financially crippled by the proposed land acquisition program, vote NO on the State Park and Recreation Bond Act.
