CALIFORNIA GUN RIGHTS ACT: Constitutional Amendment Initiative

Title: CALIFORNIA DECLARATION OF GUN RIGHTS ACT

SECTION 1, Section 32 is added to Article I of the California Constitution to read:

SEC.32. (a) (1) Individuals have the right to acquire, possess, transport, transfer, and use firearms for lawful purposes that includes hunting, sports shooting and for the common defense of self, family, home, and property. The State shall not enact laws that infringe or deny the right of the individuals to keep and bear arms as guaranteed by the 2nd Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(2) The State may enact laws to prohibit or otherwise regulate the possession of firearms and ammunition by, or the sale or transfer of firearms to, an individual; who is determined to be a danger to himself, herself, or others as a result of mental illness or mental disorder, or who has been adjudged a mentally disorder sex offender, or who is a felon.

(3) The State may enact laws to prohibit or regulate the possession of handguns by, or the sale or transfer of handguns to, individuals who are under 21 years of age.

(4) The State may enact laws to prohibit armor piercing, explosive, and Teflon-coated ammunition unless permitted under Federal regulations.

(5) The State may enact laws to regulate the carrying of concealed firearms in public, including, but not limited to, the issuance of concealed firearm permits, provided that those laws do not impose a total ban on the carrying of a concealed firearm. The State or any political subdivision of the State shall not disclose to the public the personal information of concealed firearm permit holders.

(6) The State may enact laws that require background checks for the purchase and delivery of any firearm.

(7) The State may enact laws to regulate the possession, transfer, manufacture, or sale of fully automatic firearms that continuously fire rounds whilst the trigger is pressed unless permitted under Federal regulations.

(8) Neither the State nor any other political subdivision of the State shall impose a special tax, levy, charge, exaction, or regulatory fee on the sale of firearms, ammunition, or firearms accessories, except for the statewide sales tax. The prohibition in this subdivision applies regardless of whether the special tax, levy, charge, exaction, or regulatory fee is to be payable to a governmental entity or a third party.

(9) The State may enact laws to allow a government entity to temporarily seize firearm (1) in circumstances of alleged domestic violence, for a period not to exceed 72 hours, or (2) for a reasonable period of time to determine whether return of the firearm would be appropriate when an individual is taken into custody because of a mental disorder or mental illness, or for purposes of evaluating the individual to make that determination. Neither the State nor any political subdivision of the State shall confiscate a firearm, except that the State may enact laws to authorize a government entity to seize a firearm that is (1) involved or suspected of being involved in a crime, (2) contraband or otherwise illegal, or (3) stolen. The restrictions in this section do not limit the operation or effect of a law that prohibits the commission of a crime while in possession of a firearm.

(10) Neither the State nor any political subdivision of the State shall require firearm or firearm owner registration, except as required by federal law.

(11) Neither the State nor any political subdivision of State shall require registration or fingerprinting for the purchase or transfer of ammunition or firearms accessories.

(12) (1) Neither the State nor any political subdivision of the State shall prohibit or regulate ammunition, clips or magazines, or the lead content of ammunition, except as provided in this section. (2) The State may enact laws to prohibit or regulate the use of ammunition containing lead within the habitat of the California condor.

(13) (a) Except as required by federal law or as described in subdivision (a) neither the State nor any political subdivision of the State shall restrict possession, sale, or transfer of any of the following: (1) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has the capacity to accept a magazine, whether detachable or fixed, and has any one of the following: (A) A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon. (B) A thumbhole stock. (C) A folding or telescoping stock. (D) A forward pistol grip. (E) A flash suppresser.

(b) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has a magazine, whether detachable or fixed, with capacity to accept more than 10 rounds.

(c) A semiautomatic, centerfire rifle that has an overall length of less than 30 inches.
